

Municipal Building, Lodi, Cal., June 21, 1915.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi convened in regular session at 8:00 p.m. There were present Trustees Hale, Black, Deaver, Keeney and Folendorf.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company notifying the Board that the Diaphone fire alarm equipment ordered had been shipped from their factory June 9 and should arrive in Lodi by July 1st.

City Marshal Coleman reported a shortage of street rubbish boxes. Upon motion of Trustee Black, seconded by Trustee Keeney, the Marshal was authorized to purchase six new boxes.

Upon motion of Trustee Deaver, seconded by Trustee Black, the action of members of the Board in purchasing the fixtures of the First National Bank was confirmed.

Trustee Black reported that he had investigated the matter of procuring the right to use the water of the artesian well on the Sanguinetti place for the proposed swimming tank and was informed that as the estate was not settled no such arrangement could be made. No definite information was secured as to a suitable site for the swimming tank.

Upon motion of Trustee Keeney the City Clerk was instructed to communicate with the League of California Municipalities and ascertain what cities have municipal swimming pools; and to communicate with the clerks of such cities asking for data regarding mode of construction, heating, cost, cost of maintenance, patronage, etc., and to report to the Board as soon as the information is available.

The application of A. F. Kavanaugh for a saloon license being regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Black, the license was granted.

The application of R. M. Combs for a saloon license being regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Deaver, seconded by Trustee Keeney, the license was granted.

The application of M. D. Duffy for a saloon license being regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, the license was granted.

The application of Wilkinson & Wilkinson for a wholesale liquor license being regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Deaver, the license was granted.

The application of Lodi Soda Works & Ice Depot for a wholesale liquor license being regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Folendorf, seconded by Trustee Keeney, the license was granted.

Upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Deaver, the applications of Jacob G. Hieb and C. J. Bender for wholesale liquor licenses were laid over and the clerk was instructed to notify the applicants and their bondsmen to appear before the Board Wednesday, June 23, 1915, at 8:00 p. m.

Upon motion the Board adjourned to meet again at 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, June 23, 1915.

Attest:

N. S. Black
City Clerk.
